TAMA®

Original Mastercraft Bell Brass snare drum, circa 1980.

In 1974. TAMA Drums burst onto the scene with innovative product designs, high-quality builds, and excellent performance at a compelling value. Over the past 50 years, TAMA has earned the praise of drummers around the world for its iconic products, such as the Mastercraft snare drums, Superstar and Starclassic Mirage drum sets, and Iron Cobra bass drum pedals.

In celebration of its 50th Anniversary, TAMA is proud to reintroduce several of these popular legacy products, as well as explore some fresh ideas inspired by the past. TAMA is committed to continuing to explore and expand upon these concepts from its brand's past in order to build upon its philosophy of inspiring the artistic minds of the creative drumming community.

TAMA Drums is a brand that is constantly evolving, but it is always rooted in its history of innovation and inspiration. With its 50th Anniversary celebration, TAMA is reaffirming its commitment to creating products that will help drummers of all levels achieve their creative goals.

50th Anniversary Mastercraft Reissue The Bell Brass Snare Drum

Regarded today as iconic, almost mythical, the TAMA Mastercraft 14"x 6.5" Bell Brass snare drum made its debut in 1980. Now often referred to as "The Terminator," this drum captured the attention of drummers, engineers, and music fans the world over due to its remarkable, pure, and sonorous tone. Today, the original is among the most sought-after in the industry. As part of TAMA's 50th Anniversary collection, the reissue of this highly prized drum will join the regular (not limited) product line. TAMA is proud to reintroduce this masterpiece, allowing contemporary drummers to obtain and play a piece of music history.
