

Modern Classics...Ibanez Classical Guitars.

For the classical performer as well as the beginning student, the Ibanez GA series nylon string guitars are designed and manufactured with old world craftsmanship in mind, but utilizing advanced, new world luthier techniques.

The GA7 and GA5 are true, traditional instruments. The GA6CE is a unique acoustic-electric model which will be sure to satisfy not only the classical performer but also the contemporary music performer.

The GAR2 and GAR3 are downsized (three-quarter size) models designed for easy playability, making these guitars most suitable for the beginning student.
