

FREEDOM

If you like the sound of a Semi-Acoustic but hate the feel of the large body. Try the new IBANEZ Artist Stagemaster Electric Guitar. Now you can have the sound of a Semi-Acoustic with the size of a solid body guitar. Better yet, it's lightweight which gives you the freedom and mobility to move around, get down, jump, or whatever you feel like doing.

IBANEZ New!! Artist Stagmaster Series Nos. AM50BS & AM205AV

To fit your taste, IBANEZ has developed 2 models. The AM50BS features a maple body in a high gloss brown sunburst finish, a set in maple neck, a rosewood fingerboard with dot inlays, and chrome hardware. The AM205AV features a maple body with a burl mahogany top in an antique violin finish. The neck is mahogany with a select ebony fingerboard which is detailed with the traditional IBANEZ Artist pearloid/abalone inlay. The quality is complemented with the finishing touch of gold hardware. Both models come stock with 2-Super 58 Pickups wired to dual volume and tone controls.
